Schedule Change for Monet: Questioning Nature

A special exhibition from the Museé d'Orsay and Museé de l'Orangerie

The schedule of the Monet: Questioning Nature exhibition will be revised as noted below.

After the change: Saturday, October 2, 2021 to Monday, January 10, 2022 (5F and 4F Galleries)

Prior to this change: Saturday, May 29 to Friday, September 10, 2021 (6F and 5F Galleries)

The Artizon Museum, Nikkei, Inc., Musée d'Orsay, and Musée de l'Orangerie have held repeated discussions about opening this exhibition. Given, however, the state of the coronavirus pandemic in both Japan and France, we have decided to delay its opening.

This exhibition was planned as a special exhibition for 2020, the year in which the Artizon Museum opened. It was postponed last year and now, due in part to the situation both in France and in Japan, must be postponed again. That change, we have concluded, is unavoidable in order to present the ideal line up of these invaluable French works in a safe manner.

We appreciate your understanding in these difficult times.
